An executive desk made entirely of wood, with and without extension, with clear and decided lines. A rotation of 35 mm panels that, in points of junction, they approach without touching. A thin vertical cut clearly characterizes the side.

Executive desk entirely made of wood, with or without extension, characterized by neat and precise lines. A sequence of 45-mm panels that meet but do not touch one another. A thin vertical cut that strongly defines the sides.

An all-wood executive desk, with and without extension, with clear and clear lines. A sequence of 35 mm panels which, at the junction points, approach without touching. A thin vertical cut that clearly marks the side.

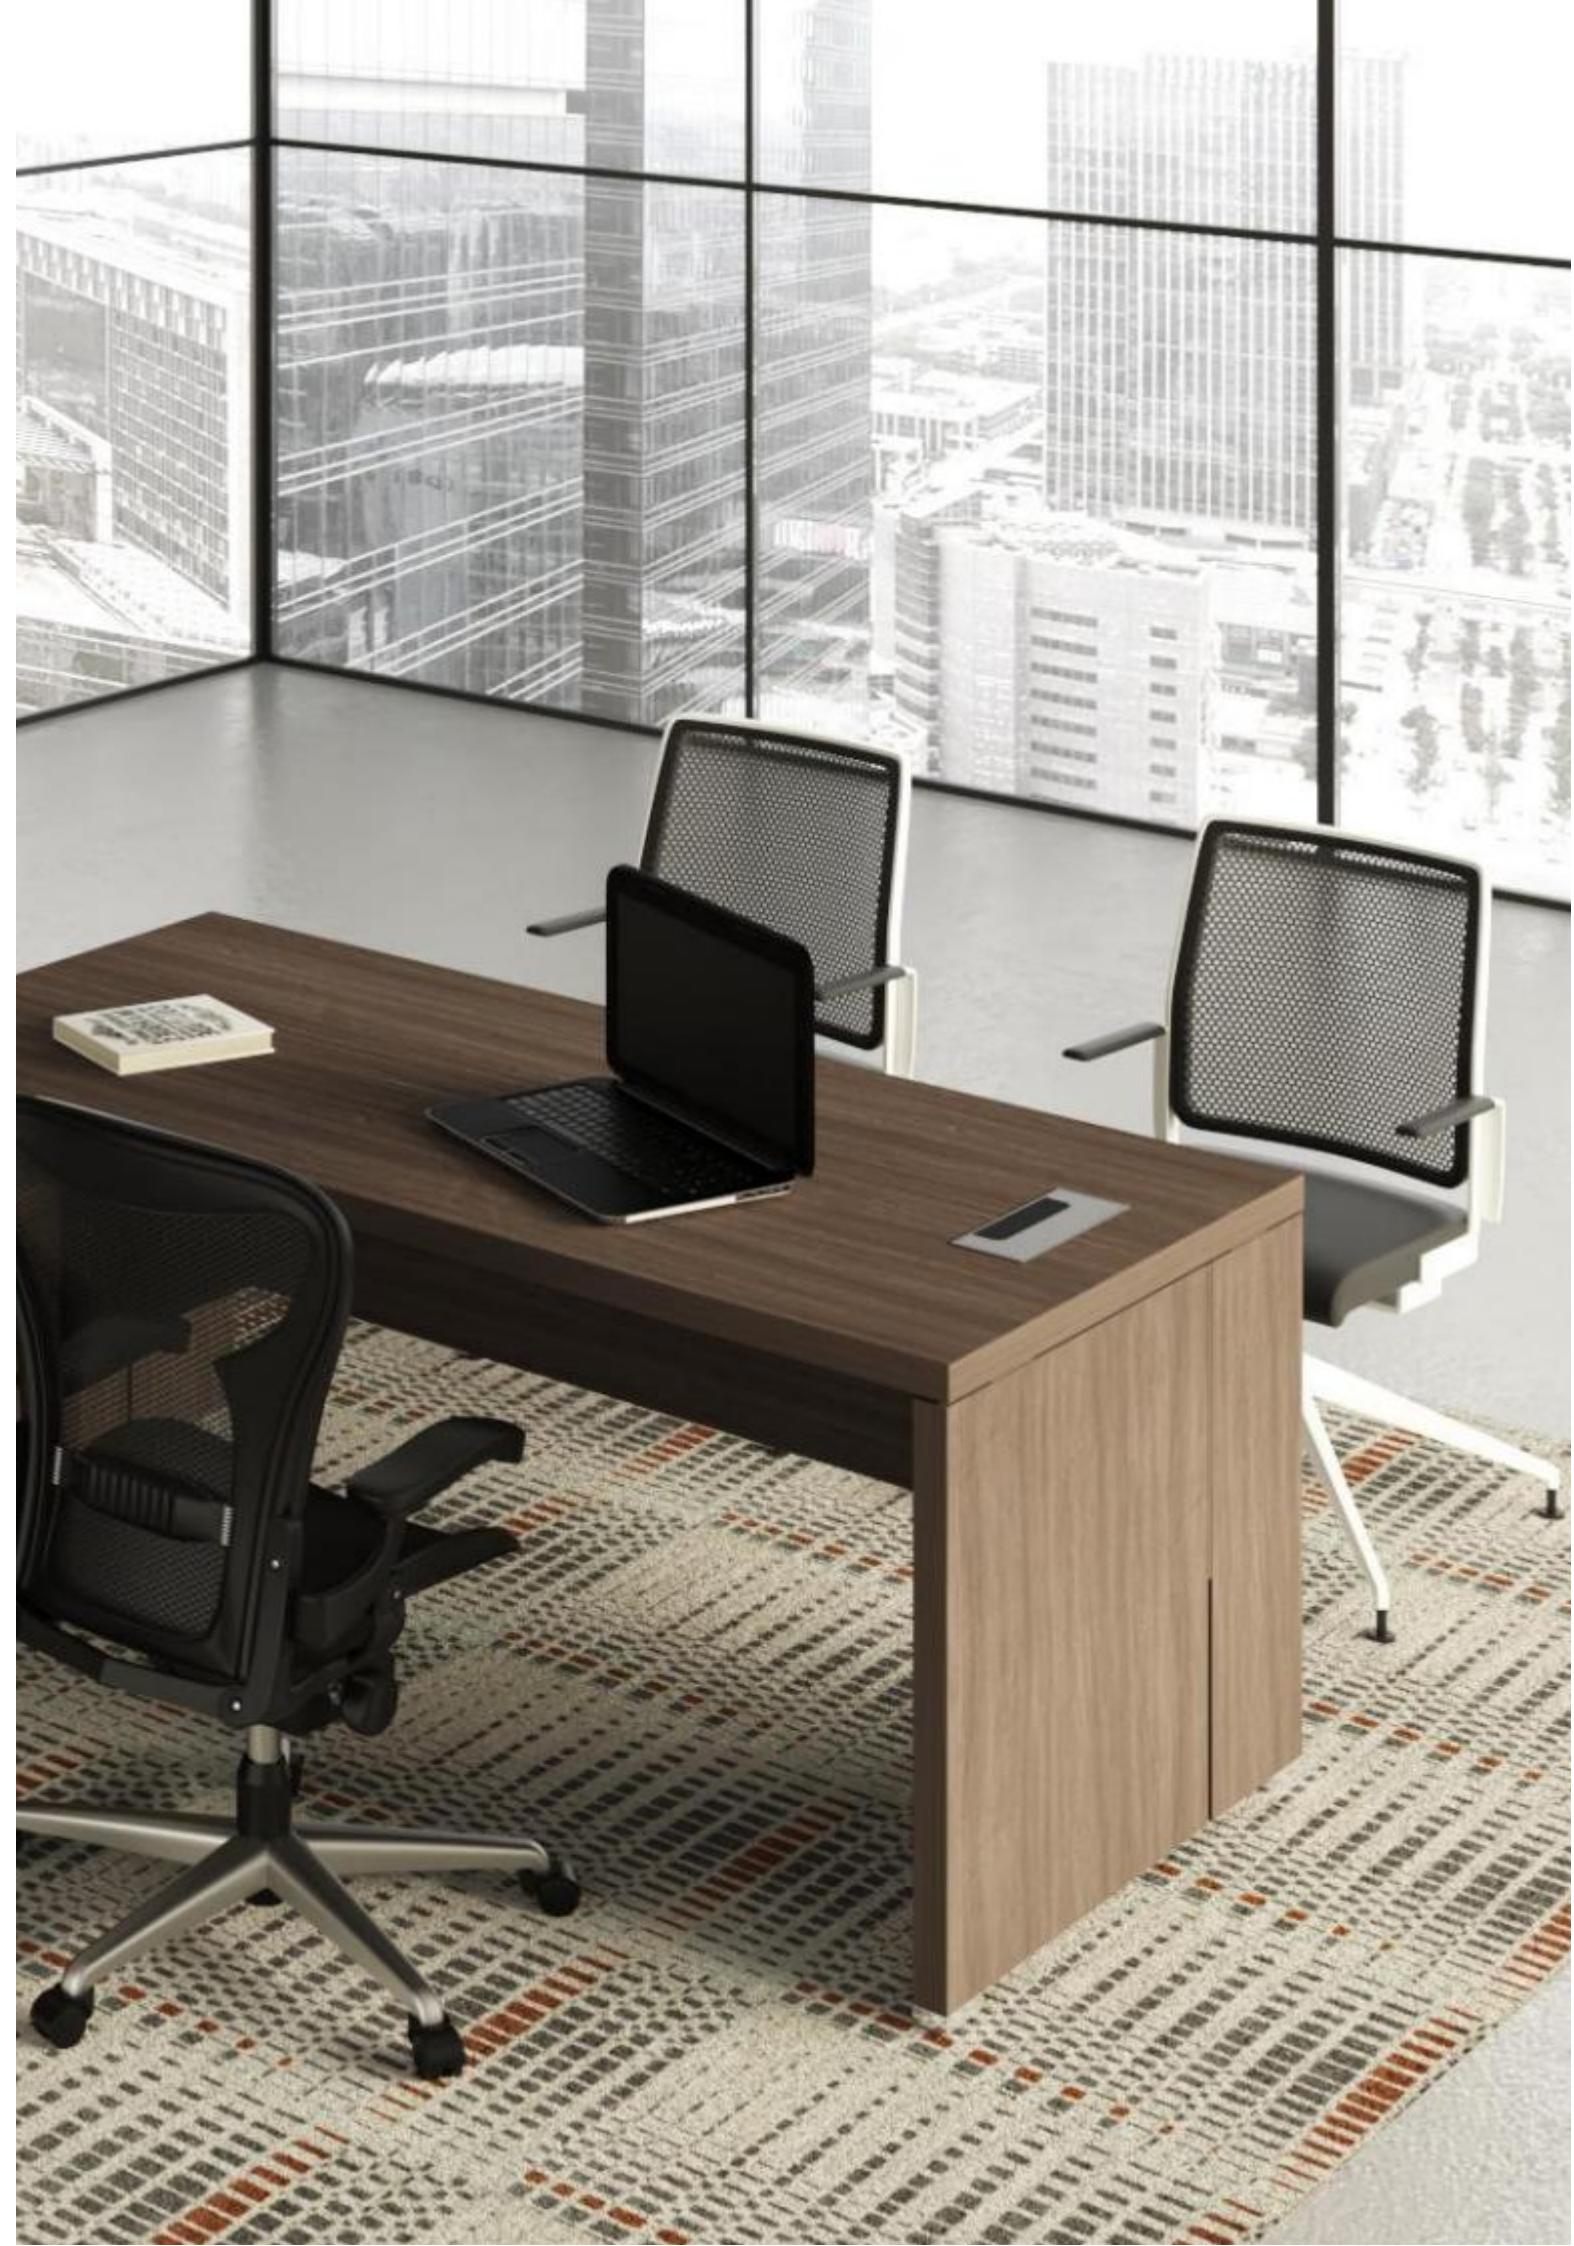

The collection is distinguished by many small details. The junction between the floor and the side, a union without visible contact, enhances the thickness of the panels and makes them perfectly legible.

The collection is characterized through many small details. The junction of the top with the side panel, with no visible contact between the two, highlights the panel thickness and makes them perfectly readable.

The collection stands out in the small details. The junction between the plateau and the side, a union without visible contact, emphasizes the thickness of the panels and the highlights.
